

Blood in your pee?

See your GP

Spotting blood in your pee can be a sign of kidney disease, cystitis, prostate problems or kidney and bladder cancer.

The quicker you see your doctor the quicker you can get the treatment you need.

Blood in pee isn't usually caused by anything serious but you must get it checked out by a doctor. It could be cancer, which is often easier to treat if found early.

