

Is #tufnutsTuesday in your diary?

Cancer can be a tough nut to crack but if caught early your chances of survival are high. That is particularly true of testicular cancer which has a 98% survival rate provided you check yourself regularly.

We recommend checking yourself on a monthly basis so we've named the first Tuesday of every month #tufnutsTuesday.

Visit our website for how to check for testicular cancer.